

Lesson 51

Teacher Instructions

Read the words in bold out loud to your learner.

- ★ (point to lm) These two letters, l and m, work together to make the sound lm.
You hear the lm sound at the end of the word film. Say the lm sound three times: lm, lm, lm
(point to the lm each time)
- (point to lp) These two letters, l and p, work together to make the sound lp.
You hear the lp sound at the end of the word help. Say the lp sound three times: lp, lp, lp (point to the lp each time)
- (point to lt) These two letters, l and t, work together to make the sound lt.
You hear the lt sound at the end of the word melt. Say the lt sound three times: lt, lt, lt
(point to the lt each time)
- (point to mp) These two letters, m and p, work together to make the sound mp.
You hear the mp sound at the end of the word lamp. Say the mp sound three times: mp, mp, mp
(point to the mp each time)
- (point to tch) These three letters, t, c, and h work together to make the sound tch.
You hear the tch sound at the end of the word itch. Say the tch sound three times: tch, tch, tch
(point to the tch each time)

Practice reading these words. Point to each word as you read it.

Point to each word as you read the sentences.

The words halt, malt, salt and watch are memory words. That means they breaks the rules and you need to remember them.

(point to the a)

The a breaks the rules in all these words. What sound does a usually make? (pause for your child to answer)

That's right! A usually makes the sound aaa like the first sound in apple.

But in the words halt, malt, salt, and watch the a makes the sound ahh, like the first sound in awesome. Because they break the rules, you can remember the words halt, malt, salt, and watch.

Read the words.

After the Lesson:

Read a book aloud to your learner.

Point to each word as you read.
